Visitor's top tips

|| Lovely walks around Ferry Meadows Country Park, and great for dogs.

Give the Saturday morning Parkrun around the lakes a try.

The walk into Peterborough takes around an hour. It's a lovely walk but you can catch the steam train back!

We enjoyed playing pitch and putt at the local golf course which was walking distance from site.

Peterborough cathedral is a must see, the city itself has excellent shopping.

Ride the little train at Ferry Meadows park. Book tickets to ride the real train into Peterborough as the station and railway museum are next door to the camp site.

The puddings and cakes at the Mulberry Tree Farm were huge and yummy.

Cycle to the medieval town of Stamford, visiting Burghley House on the way

The fishing on river and lakes is brilliant.

We had a great meal at the Beefeater 500 yards from the site. ||
