Visitor's top tips

|| Visit Northampton, home to lots of historic sites, unique architecture and lovely parks.

Cambridge is well worth a visit and only about half an hour away, parking is expensive so use the park and ride.

In April go to Paxton Pits Nature reserve to see and hear Nightingales.

Look out for the resident owl on site!

The Wheatsheaf pub at Perry was excellent – good food and great service.

There's a lovely pizza van which visits site every Friday evening – the food is delicious!

Huntingdon is a wonderful day out, with lots of shops, museums, scenic walks and eateries.

The National Trust's Wimpole Estate is lovely – an impressive mansion with beautiful gardens and a farm.

Take a walk around the reservoir, it's absolutely stunning and is so peaceful.

Cinnamon in Grafham served one of the best curries we have ever had!

The local community pub is just a 10 to 15 minute walk from site.

Visit the English Heritage Denny Abbey and Farmland Museum. **||
