This charming and traditional coastal town is home to an award-winning beach, stunning scenery and lots of small, independent shops.

Cromer Pier

Visitor's top tips

|| Cromer is a lovely town with lots of dog-friendly restaurants and bars.

There are some excellent golf courses to try in the area.

The Coast Hopper bus stops outside the site and accepts dogs.

The beaches at East and West Runton are quiet and pleasant, where the kids can also enjoy fossil hunting.

We had a lovely day out on the North Norfolk Railway.

Check out the Cromer Pier Show's schedule for seasonal events.

This is a great site to visit no matter what time of year you go, there's always something to do or see.

The Muckleburgh Military Collection is a very interesting attraction for history enthusiasts.

No. 1 Fish & Chip Restaurant in Cromer was absolutely fantastic!

The National Trust's Felbrigg Hall and Sheringham Park are definitely worth a visit.

We really enjoyed all of the on-site facilities and entertainment. ||
