Visitor's top tips

Annual events include the Aintree Grand National, the Southport Food and Drink Festival, the Comedy Festival, Flower Show, the Air Show and the British Fireworks Championship.

Take your dogs for a walk along the Queens Jubilee Trail, a 2.5km loop around the dunes which is only a 5 minute walk from site.

The Ocean Plaza Complex is just a short ten minute walk from site and includes restaurants, bowling and a cinema.

The nearest pub is the Fisherman's Rest which boasts real ale and good food, but do book in advance.

Visit Crosby beach, to see 'Another Place' by Antony Gormley where his 100 life sized cast iron figures stretch a kilometre out to sea.

If you fancy a round of golf, Southport boasts seven Championship Link Courses including the famous Royal Birkdale, home of the Open.

Play croquet and crown green bowling or on a Sunday, watch miniature car racing, take a train ride and watch the boats in Victoria Park next to site.

Formby Point is an excellent place to see red squirrels.
